

FROM RESTROOMS TO THE STREETS:

The Cityscape & Non-Normative
Citizenship in Contemporary Argentine
& Brazilian Literature

Tuesday, October 30, 2018, 12:30 - 2:00pm
Ortega Hall, Room 124, Lab 1

André Nascimento, Teaching Assistant of Spanish
Department of Spanish & Portuguese

This presentation will examine how Argentine and Brazilian contemporary queer literature dialogues with the cityscape as re-imagined alternative realities for sexual and gender identity minorities. This talk will delve into questions of how contemporary literary production question the concreteness of recent legal achievements and represent the urban space as an arena for citizenship claims in post-dictatorial Argentina and Brazil.
