games

&

language

learning

Anna Olegovna Shkireva, Department of Foreign Languages & Literatures

In my presentation I will cover how online games can contribute to language learning and how they can build a supportive environment for language learners. I will demonstrate two useful resources to establish the games and show how the facilities of LLC can contribute to this practice.