The main objective of this workshop is to share and experience past strategies that I have used to expand student's professional and social skills using the targeted language beyond the classroom. Much of the methodology used in my classroom is community and cultural based tasks that require communication between students and instructor, time management, research, and organizational skills. Be prepared to brainstorm a "beyond the classroom activity" and get feedback on how to make it part of your curriculum.

Light refreshments will be served.